Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 15 & 16, 2014

Enter into the joy of your master. In the Gospel today, Jesus tells the parable of the master who entrusts his property to his slaves. Each one is given an amount 'according to his abilities.' The master expects them to use the amount wisely. God also has entrusted us with gifts to be used in the service of the kingdom. Our life provides us with opportunities to invest our talents in a wise, prudent and generous way. We do this Annual Appeal 2014 The Archdiocesan Appeal provides us with the opportunity to invest in the future of the Kingdom as it has been entrusted to the Church of the Archdiocese of Regina. Through your generous contributions organizations like our Youth Ministry and Lay Ministry programs, help to grow the disciples and Christian leaders of the future. The call of the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal is a call to invest the gifts our God has entrusted to us with a divine promise of future growth. Your financial contribution is a response in faith that demonstrates a sacrificial willingness to live the message of the Gospel. If you have not already done so, there is still time to make a contribution. Any donation, large or small will assist our Archdiocese in continuing Christ's mission to grow disciples through the sharing of God's Word.

STEWARDSHIP A DISCIPLE'S RESPONSE

A Pastoral Letter on Stewardship—10th Anniversary Edition

(Part 17—this reflection will be updated every second week)

III. Living as a Steward

FOR REFLECTION & DISCUSSION

1. If you were to undertake stewardship as a way of Christian life, what major problems and pain would you anticipate?
2. In your lifetime, how have you experienced co-creation with God?
3. How do you relate Christian stewardship to ecology, to your personal care for the environment?
4. How do you react to the idea of “being our brother’s keeper,” of being involved in efforts to curtail consumerism so that God’s good things will benefit not only some but all people?
5. Do you see the theological connection between stewardship and “priestly mediation”?
6. What does the word of God say to you regarding the life of stewardship?

You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its taste, with what can it be seasoned? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father. (Mt 5:13-16)

There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. (1 Cor 12:4-6)

It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another. (Jn 15:16-17)

“As each one of us has received a gift, used to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace (1Peter 4:10).”
