Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 7 & 8, 2015

Sing praises to the Lord.. In today's Gospel reading Mark shows us a day in the life of Jesus. Jesus first and foremost begins His day with prayer. He then went with his disciples to Simon and Andrew's house. Simon's mother-in-law was ill, so Jesus came to her and healed her. Later that day Jesus, with compassion, cured many sick people. Hence, as Christians, we are invited to be compassionate and companions to one another in our daily lives.

STEWARDSHIP A DISCIPLE'S RESPONSE

A Pastoral Letter on Stewardship—10th Anniversary Edition
(Part 22—this reflection will be updated every second week)

IV. Stewards Of The Church

For Reflection and Discussion

1. Have you, like Dr. Giambalvo, had the experience of being “served and healed” by those you set out to serve and heal?
2. What are the implications of God’s calling us into a love relationship (covenant) and of being a people uniquely his own? What does this say about dignity, equality, unity?
3. How would you go about connecting the Eucharist with your practice of stewardship?
4. Within the institutional Church, of which you are a member, what, in order of priority, are your stewardship responsibilities?
5. Is there more to “stewardship within the Church” than donations of “time, talent, and treasure”?
6. How will “Eucharistic stewardship” develop your convictions about global solidarity — “the world is God’s village on earth”?
7. What does the word of God say to you about covenant, community, solidarity—about being Eucharistic stewards?

[Jesus] asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” “Seven,” they replied. He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground. Then, taking the seven loaves he gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to distribute, and they distributed them to the crowd. They also had a few fish. He said the blessing over them and ordered them distributed also. They ate and were satisfied. They picked up the fragments left over—seven baskets. (Mk 8:5-8)

According to the grace of God given to me, like a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another is building upon it. But each one must be careful how he builds upon it, for no one can lay a foundation other than the one that is there, namely, Jesus Christ. If anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, the work of each will come to light, for the Day will disclose it. It will be revealed with fire, and the fire [itself] will test the quality of each one’s work. (1 Cor 3:10-13)

For I will take you away from among the nations, gather you from all the foreign lands, and bring you back to your own land. I will sprinkle clean water upon you to cleanse you from all your impurities, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. I will give you a new heart and place a new spirit within you, taking from your bodies your stony hearts and giving you natural hearts. I will put my spirit within you and make you live by my statutes, careful to observe my decrees. You shall live in the land I gave your fathers; you shall be my people, and I will be your God. (Ez 36:24-28)
