Jesus and the Beloved disciple at the Last Supper

Our Parish Mission: We, the faith community of Blessed Sacrament Parish, seek to help those whom God has placed in our lives to experience the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. As Jesus' disciples, with the grace of the Holy Spirit, we strive to become living gospels of life through our daily loving choices to serve God, one another, our parish and our community.

Month of July

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me. In today's Gospel reading, we take to heart that God's grace is sufficient for each of us and take up the task with light hearts. We can also lighten the load of present-day prophets – we can listen attentively to what they say to us and remain open to deeper conversion ourselves. Today, let us pray for eyes of faith to see Jesus leading us to salvation, for ears to hear his voice beckoning us to join him on the way, and for the humility of heart to know our need of God.

Your light of truth guides us to the way of Christ. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus commissions the twelve apostles to go out two by two to preach repentance, heal the sick, the suffering and those bound by demons. He tells them to travel without any personal baggage, since God will provide for them. We too are invited to carry out our part of Jesus' mission. Often we need others for support and encouragement so that we also can support those in need.

The Lord is my shepherd. In today's reading, Jesus took on this job as our Shepherd. He protects us, cares for us and saves us from our own foolish actions and behaviors. Jesus, in accepting to be our shepherd, gave up His life for us. When we gather for the Eucharist, as a community, we remember the incredible gift Jesus has given us.

You satisfy all our needs. In today's Gospel reading, we recognize God as a life-giving God, who cares for the crowds. When God gives, he always gives abundantly: God wants us to be restored to our dignity as human beings and to fullness of life. We too, who are privileged to have all the food we need and more, can make a difference by sharing things and especially our faith in Jesus with others
