Palm Sunday - Passion of The Lord

April 8 & 9, 2017

In today's readings we see Jesus determined to complete His mission of His passion and death. He moved forward trusting that His loving Father would see Him through it all. Jesus could do what God asked of Him because He had let go of everything. This is what our prayer, fasting and almsgiving have been about. Today, we also stand at the table of the Lord to be nourished by Christ's body and blood and filled with the Spirit. Today, let us give thanks for Jesus' unconditional love for us and for His witness to a loving and trustworthy God.

Thinking Faith

TF29: Speaking of Satan...

Over the past several months and years Pope Francis has often been heard speaking about the devil and the reality of the spiritual battle we find ourselves in. This week Eric and Brett discuss the reality of the devil. Do we really still believe in some creature called Satan? Is this just a symbol of evil and sin? And what would his place be in the spiritual life and in our Catholic tradition? Throw some salt over your shoulder and join us in this episode we're calling "Speaking of Satan..." <http://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/tf29-speaking-of-satan>
