Cross Canada Marian Tour

Canada was Consecrated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary in Ottawa in 1947. This year, we celebrate the 75th Anniversary of this event. The Marian Statue that was used at the time was from Canada's National Marian Shrine located at Cap de la Madeleine near Trois Rivières, Quebec. The original statue is known as Our Lady of the Cape. As a result, the Marian Devotional Movement is spearheading pilgrim statue tours of Our Lady of the Cape to provide opportunities for Canadians to venerate Canada's National Madonna, to promote consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and to promote enrollment in the Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary. The statue will be in the Archdiocese of Regina from May 12-14. Mark your calendars and watch for full details as to times and places next week. Walking Together: Session for giving input into the Synod of Bishops

The Synodality experience is taking place at the local levels throughout the Church and our Archdiocese. We are engaging in conversations around things like discernment, accessibility, cultural awareness, inclusion, partnership, respect, transparency and fairness but most especially how we as a Church can move forward together guided by the Spirit. While these discussions are happening with pastors and parishes at many levels, one area that was identified as a special focus is "especially those on the periphery who are often excluded and forgotten". To encourage some who may have felt left out in the Church in some way, we have scheduled specific sessions to give input for the synodality effort in the Catholic Church.

These are some times and locations:

- Session for divorced and/or divorced and remarried Catholics, on Thursday, May 5th, 7:00 pm, at Blessed Sacrament Parish, 2049 Scarth St, Regina
- Session with LGBTQ2SP+ Catholics and family and friends who are supportive, on Saturday, May 7th, 1:00 PM, at Blessed Sacrament Parish, 2049 Scarth St, Regina.

TF294: Brett Fawcett on Jacques Maritain and Human Rights - Part 2

Returning guest, Brett Fawcett discusses the development of Just War Theory and universal human rights as developed through the middle ages into modernity through the work of Jacques Maritain.

"So Maritain, he's writing this during World War Two, he's very influential, and he writes this book on the Rights of Man and natural law and says 'once this war is over we've got to really establish these rights for everyone to know about and his appendix is like a bill of international human rights...' thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/brett-fawcett-on-jacques-maritain-and-human-rights-part-2

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"...Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" (John 21:17)

How often do you actually say the words "I love you" to Jesus, to family members, or to friends? We are made to be in relationship with God and each other. Sincerely telling someone that you love them is the best gift you can give them because it comes from your heart. You are giving them the gift of yourself. We all crave love. Tell someone you love them every day.

INTERPRETING THE BIBLE IN THE EARLY CHURCH: First 4 centuries - with Fr. Scott Lewis, SJ

May 2, 9, 16, 24, & 30 via Zoom
11 am Regina time

US$75 This course will examine the interpretation of Scripture in the early Church from the formation of the New Testament through the 4th century CE. We begin by focusing on the various ways in which the Scriptures were interpreted in the Jewish tradition in the three centuries BCE and the continuation of these traditions in the composition and of the New Testament. We will cover the allegorical approach, visual displays of biblical stories and themes, the influence of the Christological debates in the 4th century, the bible and the Desert Fathers, and the ways in which challenges to early Christianity affected the interpretation of Scripture. The two main schools of interpretation – Alexandria and Antioch – will be studied, along with some of the influential interpreters in these schools. Special attention will be given to anti-Judaic and supersessionist elements in the composition and interpretation of Scripture. TO REGISTER CONTACT: registrar@biblical-program.com

Decolonizing Ourselves: Exploring the Spirit of Land Acknowledgements

May 3 and May 5, 2022

8pm Central Daylight, 9pm Eastern Daylight

We welcome you to attend two online workshops with Dr Rose Roberts (PhD) and Dr Stryker Calvez (PhD), two Cree and Métis experts who have presented land acknowledgement workshops at the University of Saskatchewan for many years and created a series of short videos to help others develop and personalize their land acknowledgements to make them meaningful. This online series will invite us to reflect and act on the role and meaning of land acknowledgements in our personal lives as well as in our faith communities. We hope to connect with one another to consider our relationships with place, land, people and spirit, and to learn how to make our land acknowledgements authentic and genuine.

The workshops will each be 1.5 hours. They will require your active participation as well as a personal commitment (2-3 hours) to learning and self-reflection prior to the first event. This is mandatory 'homework' that involves:

1. Watch video series here: teaching.usask.ca/curriculum/indigenous-voices/land-acknowledgements/module.php
2. Spend time outside in a quiet place to reflect.
3. Write your own land acknowledgement

*Plan to spend 2 hours for the pre-work. The videos run ~1 hour.

Register early (before April 25th) to join a "Watch Party" on April 26th where we will watch the videos and discuss them as a group in preparation for Workshop #1.

We hope to see you there!

Did you know... "Spirituality entails seeking understanding beyond the physical world. First Nations' people consider spirituality as a relationship to all of creation." "Spirituality is a profound understanding that is attained through life-long learning and a way of knowing that is uniquely First Nation. Spirituality is the sustenance of the human spirit to grow and be nurtured in a relationship with the creator and the spiritual keepers" (Cultural Teachings: First Nations Protocols and Methodologies, SICC, pp.14 & 15)
